

STONE QUARRY OFFICE SCENE OF BREAK-IN

ROBBERS SCARED AWAY AFTER MOVING SAFE OUTSIDE SUNDAY

State police and Putnam county authorities were hunting for clues Monday morning as result of an attempted robbery at the O. & L. stone quarry, just southwest of the city, Sunday night.

The would-be robbers had managed to get the office safe, weighing some 500 or 600 pounds out of the building, before they were frightened away from the scene.

Keith Humphrey, who lives in the house on the hill above the office, returned home at 11:30 p. m. He noticed a car beside the office but did not become suspicious until after he had put his own car in the garage. The continued barking of his dog and a pounding noise caused him to get the auto out of the garage and he started down the hill toward the office. This action scared off the nocturnal visitors who jumped in the parked automobile and sped away in the darkness.

Humphrey discovered the safe outside the office and immediately notified the authorities.

The robbers forced a basement window in order to gain entrance to the building. They went upstairs to a storeroom where they broke another window to get into the main office.

Desks in the office had been ransacked apparently in search of the safe's combination and for possible money.

State police said last Monday morning that the combination of the safe had been ruined but that the robbers failed to get it open.

Nothing was reported missing by stone quarry officials who remarked that it required five or six men to move the safe into the office when it was first put in use. It was believed that at least two and perhaps more men were in Sunday night's robbery gang.

Purposes of the school mainly were to discover ways to make property taxes more equitable and to prevent evasion of payment of personal property taxes. The school was sponsored by the I. U. Department of Government Research, the National Association of Assessing Officials and state associations of county auditors, treasurers and assessors and township assessors and trustees.

Fire of unknown origin destroyed a double crib and about 700 bushels of corn on the Leonard Mann farm east of Cloverdale Saturday about noon. The Cloverdale fire department was called and made its first run, but about the time they had the fire under good control, they ran out of water and by the time their tank was refilled from a nearby pond, the crib had started burning again.

The corn was scattered by the use of a bull dozer, but it still burned and was continuing to burn Monday. Only a small amount of insurance was carried on the building and contents.

Mother, Three Children Killed

HAVANA, Ill., Aug. 15 (UP)—A Terre Haute, Ind., mother and three of her children, enroute home after winning blue ribbons at the Illinois State Fair, were among five persons killed Sunday in a head-on collision south of here.

Dead were Mrs. Bernice Painter, 39, of Terre Haute, and her children, Charles, 14, May 12, and John 11, and Howard E. Watkins, Chandlerville, Ill.

The Painter children had won an A-rating and a blue ribbon as a musical trio at the fair Saturday where they were adjudged the best group in a 4-H share-the-fun contest.

Roy Painter, husband of the dead woman, was injured seriously and taken to Graham Hospital in Canton, Ill. Donald Vaughn, Greencastle, Ill., a passenger in the Watkins car, was injured critically.

Coroner Richard Hurley of Mason County said witnesses told him the car driven by Watkins was weaving on highway just before the crash, the worst in the county's history.

The Painters' two other children, who accompanied the family to the fair, were not in the car. Police said the other children had been left with friends at Monmouth, Ill.

12 CONVICTS SURRENDER; HOSTAGES ARE RELEASED

WALLA WALLA, Wash. Aug. 15—(UP)—Twelve rioting convicts at the state prison surrendered and released ten hostages today after Warden Lawrence Delmore Jr., backed by armed guards, told them they were "damned fools."

The convicts had barricaded themselves in the mood manager's office of the prison, where they were driven by tear gas and a warning shot fired by the tough-talking warden.

Delmore said the rioting inmates captured 11 guards at 10:15 p. m. EDT during the evening meal and released one of them, Gerald Lehan, with the convicts' demands. For a short time the rioters held partial control of the prison, but guards went into action with tear gas.

MANY ENJOYED BOATING EVENT AT YACHT CLUB

SECOND ANNUAL REGATTA HELD SUNDAY AT CATARACT LAKE

Several hundred aquatic enthusiasts, consisting of members and guests, witnessed the second annual regatta at the Cataract Yacht Club on Sunday. Robert H. O'Hair, vice commodore, was the general chairman of the interesting event, held during the morning and afternoon on the upper lake.

Following the regatta, in the late afternoon a social hour was held at the club house with Hal Hickman of Greencastle acting as announcer and master of ceremonies. Mr. Hickman was assisted by Fred W. Keuthan, fleet captain, in awarding the trophies to the winners of each event.

There was only one accident during the afternoon. Young Freddie Keuthan, an entrant in the "free for all", capsized his boat on a turn, and was thrown into the water. He was rescued and suffered no ill effects. His boat was later recovered.

Bernie Schulten came from Louisville to win the sail boat race held during the morning. Billy Keuthan of Indianapolis was the happy youngster to receive the trophy for the junior race involving outboard up to 10 H. P. The outboard speedboat of 40 H. P. race was won by Edwin Burris of Terre Haute, and another Terre Haute man, Richard Davis, was the recipient of the trophy in the 12½ to 16 ft. outboard speedboats classification.

Several persons from Danville were winners; Dick Kendall took the trophy for the inboard speedboats up to 100 H. P., and Major Franklin carried away the outboard open speedboat, up to and including 12 ft. LOA, trophy. Dr. O. E. Crawley of Danville won the outboard open "Free for all", and his two sons, Jake and Jere Crawley, won both water skiing events.

Roy Sutherland served as one of the judges, and Rex Haines was on the Safety Patrol, Rescue and First Aid committee.

Ike In Denver For Rest, Work

DENVER, Aug. 15—(UP)—President Eisenhower, obviously glad to have Washington problems temporarily behind, today began a work-and-play vacation with enthusiastic plans for an early bout with mountain trout.

The Chief Executive, rested from a quiet night at the home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. John Sheldon Doud, scheduled an early morning visit to his temporary headquarters at Lowry Air Force Base and then a golf match with Dan Thornton, former Republican governor of Colorado, at the Cherry Hills Country Club.

Mr. Eisenhower landed at Lowry at 8:59 p. m. EDT Sunday, after a five-hour, 34-minute flight from Washington in his Constellation, the Columbine III. He was in no hurry and detoured for a low-level look en route at his old hometown of Abilene, Kansas.

The President, his desk and calendar relatively clear, is expected to head for the upper reaches of the Rockies Tuesday or Wednesday for several days of trout fishing at the Eraser, Colo., ranch of his pal, Aksel Nielsen of Denver.

The mutilated body of Peter Gorman, missing from Camp Wabamigo since July 5, was found Sunday in a swampy area 10 miles north of here and six miles from the camp.

Sheriff Axel E. Pederson said 10 employees of the camp would be questioned about the slaying. The sheriff said at least two of them could be considered "suspects."

CHANGES ARE DUE IN CITY POLICE DEPT.

PRESENT CHIEF WILL BE SUCCEEDED BY JOHN VERMILLION

Several changes will be made in the city police department within the next two or three weeks, it was announced today.

The first change to be made will take Grover Vaughan, serving as chief for the past month, to DePauw University, where he will succeed R. N. Reinstedt, Security Officer, who is leaving to serve as dean of students and director of admissions at California's Whittier College. Reinstedt succeeded Russell Clapp when the latter went to Plainfield as head of the Day's School.

John Vermillion will succeed Grover Vaughan as head of the city police department when the change is made. Mr. Vermillion is the oldest member of the city police department in point of service and should make an ideal head for the city police department.

REDS WIN ELECTION

REPUBLIC OF SAN MARINO Aug. 15—(UP)—The Communists imported some 1,600 voters Sunday to beat the Democrats in a showdown election and retain control of the only Red-dominated state in Western Europe.

By winning, the Reds thwarted a concerted drive by an American delegation and the tiny republic's non-voting women to replace Communism with democracy.

Semi-official final returns showed the Communists gained three seats from their opponents in the 60-man Grand and General Council, which controls all life in the 38-square-mile enclave of 15,000 people in the Italian Apennines. For the past four years the Reds have held a 31-29 edge.

TROPHY FOR SAFETY WORK

NEW GLASSES

Yep, I've took to wearin' glasses
That is, off an' on.
Oh, if I don't need 'em,
But when I do—they're gone!

A'mt specs the slyest critters
Bout hidin' out o' sight!
Me—I'm stewin' half the mornin'
And b'ilin' half the night.

Just huntin' them blame glasses
And, find 'em, like as not,
Egactly where I parked 'em
In some near-by, "handy" spot.

And if, as sometimes happens,
They're up where specs belong,
Across my nose a-settin'—
They won't stay there long!

"Cause, I'm that absent-minded,
I'm bound to make a pass
And slam 'em, with my hair-
brush,
Bang! At the lookin' glass!

Yep, I hate 'em when I have 'em
And hunt 'em when I haint!
They're sure one stiddy tenant
In my "room for complaint."

Fire Destroys Popular Lodge

CORYDON, Ind., Aug. 15 — (UP)—Firemen today investigated a $150,000 fire that destroyed the Wyandotte Cave Lodge west of here, forcing 50 guests to flee.

No one was injured in the Sunday blaze which raged out of control before firemen from Corydon could get to the isolated inn located in a hilly section near the Ohio River.

The adjacent home of the lodge manager, Samuel Riely, also was destroyed, but firemen prevented the flames from spreading to the nearby woods. Corydon Fire Chief Louis Jones said the blaze may have started in one of the rooms, but the cause was not immediately determined. The lodge and manager's home were destroyed within an hour after the blaze had broken out.

The lodge was built a few years ago on the site of a previous lodge which also was destroyed by fire. Frank Rothrock, Seattle, Wash., owned the lodge.

TODAY'S BIBLE THOUGHT
I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my strength.—Psalm 121:1
The early Palestinians thought that God's were gods of the hills. Later they thought that their one God made Heaven and Earth. But still they clung to ancient mental pictures.

OMAHA, Neb.—(UP)—Mrs. C. Hollestelle, Omaha, told police that some energetic thieves had beaten her to the punch.

She said she had planned to move a two-car garage from a lot she owns. But when she got there, the lot was bare. The thieves had dismantled it, leaving not a single stick.

The body was nude, hands tied behind back. (International)

FAIRLY SPOKEN

Pastime Of Dieting Is Not A Cheap One

By Margaret Latrobe

For a long time it has been noticeable to dieters that their pastime isn't cheap. You never see fat people nervously checking the bank balance, foregoing Hawaiian vacations, or flinching at pictures of new model cars.

The well-fed invariably have dough in the bank, take the vacations and buy the cars. While the dieters glare in protein poverty.

Logan, Utah, is the scene of a project conducted by the Utah experiment station, in which Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lloyd ate cheap and gluttonously for three weeks. Food costs were $4.28 per person per week. Eating heartily (and such Elizabethan feasting makes me almost ill) "chuck roast, potatoes, carrots, cottage cheese, peanut butter, pancakes heavily as not buckwheat with heavy syrup aboard" and other nourishing, low-priced foods.

"We ate good," commented Mrs. Lloyd, at the end of this epicurean gobbling. And she said a mouthful!

The final blow was the admission that neither this young lady nor her spouse "lost an ounce." Well, for Pete's sake—no! This kind of banqueting is for the fat and frugal. Only they can save enough to live in future affluence. And the sequel to affluence is that immediately the exaltation of vacations, new clothes and such brings thoughts of dieting.

With dieting comes proteins. No more peanut butter sandwiches and buckwheat cakes, just the thick juicy steaks to be had at a king's ransom.

And right soon, the well-nourished feasters are loaded no longer with food or fortune. They are staying home, recapping old tires and nibbling solid gold proteins with the rest of us.

If a size nine dress and 23-inch waist be the goal, might as well settle for friendly postcards from non-dieters swimming at Waikiki. There seems to be no way to control girth and grocery bill at the same time. (With an overactive thyroid, you can have your buckwheat cakes and figure, too—but ah, some people have all the luck.)

It's not surprising that Mrs. America of 1956 prefers a clock-controlled GAS range. She knows how effortless championship cooking and baking can be.

She knows, too, that GAS cooking is cleaner! When broiling with some ranges, the oven door must be left open allowing smoke and fumes to escape into the kitchen. With a GAS range, you broil with the oven door closed. You can easily see that GAS is cleaner!

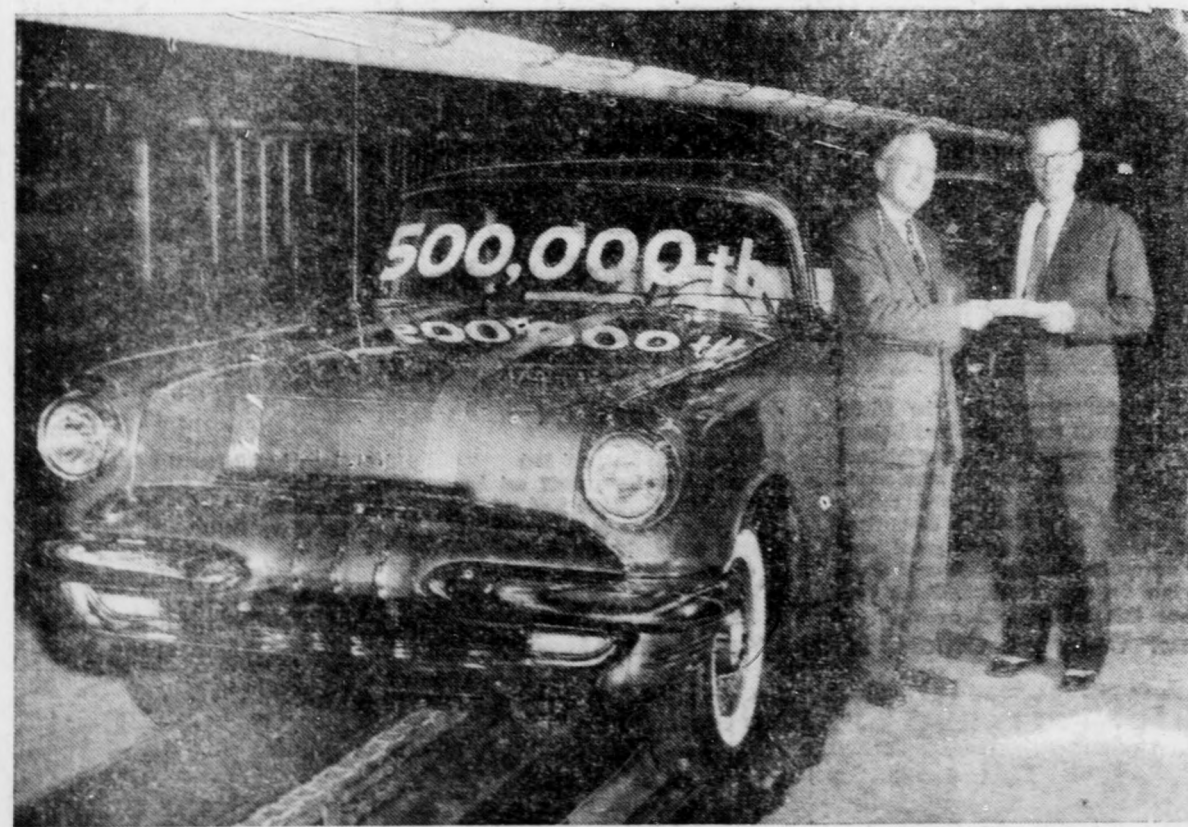

Every woman is the "Mrs. America" of her home and kitchen... and, every woman deserves a beautiful new modern GAS range.

HALF MILLION 1955 PONTIACS—The 500,000th 1955 Pontiac, a Star Chief Safari Custom Station Wagon, gets final inspection approval from Buel E. Starr, (right) General Manufacturing Manager, as he turns the inspection card over to R. M. Critchfield, Pontiac General Manager. The historic Pontiac came off the assembly line August 11th. It is the first Pontiac produced in a single model year. Critchfield predicted the Pontiac Division will build more than 550,000 passenger cars during the 1955 model run.

Part Scores Result
In Strange Contracts

Partial scores result in some strange final contracts. In today's deal Mr. Masters found himself playing a small slam at hearts, with a singleton heart in his hand. He made that contract by good handling of the trump suit.

Seven clubs was ice-cold although admittedly it was hard to reach. Three hearts would have been forcing for one round and at his next turn Mr. Abel could have bid his clubs.

That way, he would have got a clear-cut choice from Mr. Masters and, even if the grand slam were missed, the safer final contract of six clubs undoubtedly would have been reached.

THIN ICE

The six heart bid was on this ice from the start. Mr. Champion led the king of spades which was ruffed in the dummy. Mr. Masters led a heart to his ace and wondered how he should go back to the board to pull the remaining trumps.

Holding as many as ten clubs in his hand and dummy, there was a fair chance that a club lead at this point would be ruffed. On the other hand one trick could be lost without going set. And, since the hand was freakish in nature, there was also the consideration that one opponent may have started with five hearts.

If one opponent were void in clubs, then the odds favored his having the long heart holding.

And maybe his hearts needed to be shortened.

"SAFE" PLAY

On this thinking Mr. Masters avoided the "safe" play of entering dummy by ruffing another spade. Instead he led a club at the third trick and went up with dummy's ace.

Mrs. Keen ruffed but that was her side's last trick. She returned the king of diamonds and Mr. Masters took the ace and ruffed a diamond on the board. Mrs. Keen's trumps were now picked up and the club suit furnished the rest of the tricks.

If Mr. Masters had entered dummy at the third trick by ruffing a spade, Mrs. Keen would have had more trumps than dummy—and the hand would have fallen apart.

EXTRA!

LONDON, Aug. 15 — (UP) — A spokesman for the British Foreign Office disclosed today that the United States wants to publish the records of the Big Four summit conference at Geneva in the near future.

British objects to the plan. The Foreign Office spokesman said:

"Consultations are in progress and no final decision has been taken so far."

"Britain," he said, "would prefer not to publish."

NEVADA CITY, Calif., Aug. 15 — (UP) — Airman Daniel Schmidt and his re-wed wife Una went separate ways today, apparently with little chance for a reconciliation.

The 23-year-old former prisoner of the Reds checked out of his hotel Saturday without saying where he was going. It seemed certain his wife would not be reunited with him.

Una, 20, mother of their two-year-old son, Danny Walter, returned to the trailer in which she and Alford Fine, 22-year-old logger, live. Una said she married Fine last September "in Mexico."

RAYMOND, Wash., Aug. 15 — (UP) — Philip Crosby, 21-year-old son of crooner Bing Crosby, suffered a broken back Sunday when his automobile smashed through a guard rail and rolled down two embankments.

Crosby, an Army private stationed at Fort Lewis, Wash., was driving back to Fort Lewis when the accident occurred. Officials of new Riverview Hospital said he was doing "pretty well."

Crosby told an ambulance driver he fell asleep at the wheel.

CLINTON, Ind., Aug. 15 — (UP) — Richard Marietta, 15, Blanford, was killed accidentally by a shotgun blast Saturday on the opening day of the squirrel hunting season.

Marietta was shot through the heart at close range by Ronald Leach, 13, Blanford, as the two set on a log playing with the gun.

TAIPEI, Formosa, Aug. 15 — (UP) — The influential United Daily News said today a struggle for power within Red China was underway between Premier Chou En-lai and Communist Chief Liu Shao-chi.

The newspaper predicted Chou would lose and a sweeping purge would result.

GENEVA, Aug. 15 — (UP) — A chunk of radioactive "cobalt 60" vanished today from the Atom-for-Peace exhibition. It was believed taken by a souvenir hunter who does not realize he may be carrying death in his pocket.

This is the same radioactive metal used in hospitals to powder cobalt radiation guns. Swiss police appealed for its return and warned it is dangerous.

BONN, Germany, Aug. 15 — (UP) — Chancellor Konrad Adenauer has promised the release of German war prisoners from Iron Curtain countries a main condition for establishing normal with the Soviets, the Bonn government disclosed Sunday night.

The chancellor took the tough stand for the first time publicly in a note delivered to the Soviets and released by the Bonn government.

At the same time Adenauer reiterated Western allied warnings that there can be no European security system without agreement on German reunification.

Adenauer has agreed to fly to Moscow to begin negotiations with the Soviets around Sept. 9.

CHIANG KAI-SHEK—VI

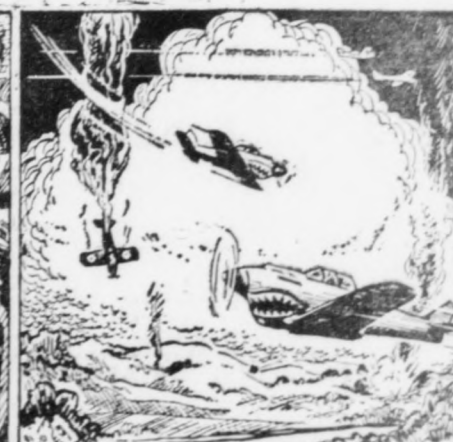

In the early morning hours of July 8, 1937, some Chinese soldiers, thinking they were to be attacked, fired on a Japanese detachment stationed at the Marco Polo bridge near Peking. Invasion and war had come at last for all China.

With savage fury the Japanese attacked. Their bombers rained death upon the great defenseless cities of the Chinese coastal area. Twenty million people were forced to evacuate their homes and flee to the western provinces for safety.

Climax of Japanese ruthlessness came with the now historic Rape of Nanking in which a horror-stricken world beheld a great civilian population slaughtered. It was an insanely stupid blunder, because all China now girded for the fight.

Badly outmatched by the relentless Japanese, Chiang Kai-shek courageously continued the fight. In the air the Chinese fared better thanks to the Flying Tigers, a squadron of U. S.-made P-40s manned by American pilots.

NEXT—Chiang Kai-shek is forced from homeland to island fortress.

Will Rule On Shop Contracts

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 15 — (UP)—An Indianapolis judge may issue a decision today on the legality of union shop contracts in a vital case that could lead to similar court tests throughout the nation.

Judge Walter Pritchard of Superior Court indicated he would hasten his decision in anticipation of an appeal to the Indiana Supreme Court by the losing side.

The suit, brought by Vernon R. Smith of the Allison Division of General Motors, seeks a permanent injunction preventing the CIO United Auto Workers Union and the firm from enforcing the union shop clause of their new contract.

Smith, an non-union worker, said he instituted the action to protect the rights of a minority of about 700 other non-union workers in the plant.

Should Smith lose the case, he would be required to join the union by August 26, when the terms of the new contract go into effect, or lose his job.

Pritchard said a lower court ruling now would give the Supreme Court time to issue its decision on the anticipated appeal before the Aug. 26 deadline.

Joined in the unusual role as co-defendants are the UAW and General Motors.

Smith's attorney, George Ross of Indianapolis, argued at a hearing last week that the union shop clause "violates the constitutional rights" of non-union workers.

Ross said the clause violated the 1953 Indiana Labor Policy Act which says workers shall be "free from coercion by labor or management" and shall be "free to decline association with fellow workers."

Frederick D. Anderson, attorney for General Motors, argued the economic employment of 37,000 GM employees in Indiana rests on the contract.

REBUTTAL
KENDALLVILLE, Ind., (UP)—A state highway department official, ticketed for not paying a parking meter, "told off" city police, then reluctantly paid a 25-cent fine. In retaliation, Mayor Andrew Milner sent a letter to the state highway chairman, demanding that the person be reprimanded and saying, "we don't have to stand for it and we don't intend to."

HERE'S PROOF

INDIANAPOLIS, (UP)—Clay Trusty, city editor of the Indianapolis News, dashed outdoors into a midnight hailstorm, scooped up a handful of hailstones and put them on ice in a home freezer. Next day he published a photo proving the hailstones were as big as golf balls.

Effective spraying of sheep shortly after shearing apparently disposed of ticks for at least a year.

GIRLS DIE OF BURNS

ELKHART, Ind., Aug. 15 (UP)—Two Elkhart girls died during the weekend of burns suffered when they were trapped in a pup tent which caught fire and collapsed on them as they slept.

Lucina Glassburn, 8, died Saturday of second degree and third degree burns over her entire body and Mary Joanne Stewart, 11, died Sunday.

Milford Glassburn, in whose yard the tent was pitched, said his daughter and her companion had placed a lighted candle on the ground near the tent. The candle apparently fell over and ignited a grass fire which spread to the tent.

Glassburn suffered minor burns when he pulled the screaming girls from under the burning canvas.

MODERN ENOCH ARDEN BACK HOME

ONE OF 11 American airmen back in their homeland from their homeland from the nightmare of Red China's torture chambers, Airman 2/c Daniel C. Schmidt soberly looks at a photo of his wife, who married another man while he was in prison, and their son Daniel, 2 1/2. To all questions about his plans to meet 20-year-old Una Schmidt-Fine, he replied grimly, "I don't know." The 11 flyers landed at Travis Air Force Base, Calif., in two C-54 transports which carried them across the Pacific.
